

Title: How to dockerize Jhipster monolithic Angular application as docker folder is missing in Client application

Post Body:

I am using latest Jhipster version v7.0.1 and generated monolithic client application [angular] and separate monolithic server application. I want to create separate docker image for these two applications. But observed that Docker Folder is not generated in client application.

Can any one please help me here to achieve this dockerization.

Accepted Answer: None

Highest Rated Answer: None